Course Descriptions

Teaching Internet Safety to Children and Community Groups: This is a “Train-the-Presenter” training session geared to teach officers whose responsibility is to teach internet safety to children. Speaker: Lt. Joe Laramie, Glendale PD, Director, Missouri Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force.

Securing Houses of Worship: A session on crime prevention techniques with specific emphasis on securing houses of worship. Some topics to be discussed include: locks, lights, alarms, CCTV, and employee background investigations. Speaker: P.O. Mike Betten, MS, CPP, Overland Park (KS) PD.

Developing support for preparedness, emergency management and other volunteer programs: Designed as a “Keynote address” on the last day of the conference to wrap up the training and send attendees home with some new ideas and energy to renew their volunteer and citizens programs. Speaker: FEMA representative.

This training is certified for 19 hours of Continuing Education Hours by the Missouri POST Commission.
